The purpose of this document is to allow for the use, in the classroom by educators, of Ellyn Daugherty's copyrighted materials including the Biotechnology: Science for The New Millennium (BS4NM) textbook, lab manual, Instructor's Guide, Course Planner and other BS4NM educator support materials.

Biotechnology: Science for The New Millennium*, 2017 edition

To access the electronic copies of the BS4NM materials, an educator must demonstrate, by completing the form on the next page and submitting it for review to Ellyn Daugherty at Ellyn@BiotechEd.com, that they are affiliated with an educational facility (registering with their "school" email address and providing other information about their teaching position and how the curriculum will be used).

The educator applicant will also agree that the use of the Biotechnology: Science for The New Millennium materials are only for use by their own students and that any copies of the BS4NM curriculum are not to be distributed to other educators, non-students, or companies.

To receive access to the BS4NM curriculum/materials, each educator's application includes an understanding and agreement that all BS4NM materials are considered "as is," and will no longer be updated or supported. The use of all BS4NM materials and recommendations are at the educator's own risk.

Please make a copy of the application form on the following page, fill it out completely (in ink), and then return a scanned copy to me in an email (to ellyn@biotechd.com) from your "school" email.

I will review it for approval and contact you with the access instructions.

Sincerely,

Ellyn Daugherty
